From the Beehive: An Update on MELT

JD Smucker

During the past five weeks Helen Bowman, Liz Gingerich, and I have been meeting with members of the congregation interested in sharing their reflections, questions, concerns, and thoughts about the Mennonite Education Fund Guidelines. What I thought would be a couple months of folks sharing their opinions has become a journey into the lives of many who I would not have understood as well simply from a congregational meeting or casual conversation. It has been a gift to be invited into someone's home, and to have the time to listen without needing to have any answers. The whole point was to enter into conversation without answers, to hear unique perspectives, emotion, pain, thanksgiving, celebration, and a whole spectrum of views on Mennonite Education.

Often the process of what we do is more important than the finished product. In a past career as a choir director, I was reminded daily how the journey of creating is a never ending learning experience. When a choir performs a concert, it is simply a window for others to view the journey or progress of the choir. The concert is not an end in itself, and sometimes external factors such as colds, emotional stress, a badly tuned piano, or even the weather, can influence the outcome of a concert. It would be nice, but we cannot control everything, and there is no perfect concert.

So, in the coming weeks as we listen, discuss, reflect, and move forward, I pray we can also be reminded that the journey is ongoing. We are a faith community finding our way, as we agree, disagree, or agree to disagree, or maybe don't really care. We work at this together. Thanks to all who have shared in the MELT listening opportunity so far. If you would like to be heard, but have not been contacted, please send a note to JD or the church office. The journey continues.

Thank You

*Christ has no body now but yours,
No hands, no feet on earth but yours.
Yours are the eyes with which he sees,
Yours are the feet with which he walks,
Yours are the hands with which he blesses all the world. —*

Lyrics adapted from a prayer by St Teresa of Avila

A huge thank you Waterford congregation for your amazing response! WMC completed 36 relief kits during November and December 2025. These were delivered to MCC at the Depot on Monday and will be prepared for shipping to families whose lives have been disrupted by conflict or disaster around the globe. Our prayers accompany these simple items praying that recipients will know they are not forgotten.

Lent

Dwelling in Dissonance

Cindy Voth, for Worship Ministry Team

Lent is the season of the church that is set aside for prayerful reflection as we prepare to faithfully follow Jesus through the events of Holy Week. We will begin our Lenten journey on Ash Wednesday, February 18. Everyone is invited to a 6:30 p.m. worship service where we are reminded who we are and who God is. Within the service, pastors will offer to place ashes on foreheads or hands as signs not only of our mortality but also of forgiveness and new life. Following the service, all are invited to join others in the Fellowship Hall for a time of board games and snacks.

Our Sunday morning worship services during Lent will follow the Narrative Lectionary as we focus on the theme “Dwelling in Dissonance.” We will draw from the worship resource created by members of the Atlantic Coast Conference, published in the The Leader by MennoMedia. This year we will follow the accounts of Holy Week as recorded in the Gospel of John. The authors write,

“We invite your congregation to ask each week, ‘What is the dissonance in this passage?’ Dissonance occurs in music when two or more notes strike the listener as discordant. Our ear instinctively knows the note that will bring resolution and wants the dissonance to resolve to something more harmonious. Similarly, we might be tempted to rush through the discord within these Lenten texts, anticipating the already-and-not-yet resolution of Easter. Can we stay in the hard places with Jesus and linger throughout Lent at the edge of our understanding, so we might more fully remain open and present to the hard places and the mysteries we face today?”

Our Sunday worship services will be led by an intergenerational mentor and mentee pair. Each week will include a time of confession and receiving words of assurance, along with singing Voices Together 636, “Spirit, Open My Heart,” and a dramatic retelling of the scripture passage. Each Sunday in this series we will also receive the blessing of special music.

During Holy Week, we will gather on Wednesday, April 1, for a Maundy Wednesday service which will include a shared simple meal and a time of footwashing. For our Easter Celebration on April 5, we will have a sunrise service at 7 a.m., brunch in our fellowship hall at 9 a.m., preservice singing in the sanctuary at 10:15 followed by worship at 10:30 to celebrate the resurrection where we will also share in Communion.

In the chart below you will find the scripture texts for each week, weekly themes, and the name of our preacher and worship leaders. We invite everyone to come to our Lenten journey ready to patiently dwell in the dissonance found in the events and experiences of Holy Week as shared in the Gospel of John.

Date	Theme	Scripture	Preacher	Worship Leaders
2/22	Love and grief, glory and belief	John 11:1-44	Cindy Voth	Loanne Harms and Lydia Voth

3/8	Standing up and standing back	John 18:12-27	Cindy Voth	Brent Beck and Liam Wyse-Fisher
3/15	Submission and power	John 18:28-40	Deron Bergstresser	Rosanna Kauffmann and Eliza Method

3/29	Palm Sunday	John 19:16b-22	Deron Bergstresser	Lynda Hollinger-Janzen and Cori Chupp

Update on the Prykhodko Family

A New Business Venture

David Gingerich

Under normal circumstances I would never write a promotion or classified advertisement in our church publication. However, in this circumstance, I'm doing just that. You should know that I've had this approved with our church staff.

As you may recall, Pavlo and Anastasiia Prykhodko and their three children lived with Marge and me for nine months last year after immigrating to the United States from Ukraine. Our Pathfinders Sunday Class was their sponsor. Pavlo works at Wieland Design and Anastasiia works as a para for Goshen Schools. Artem is a Freshman at Goshen College, Tymofii is a seventh grader at Goshen Junior High, and Yunia, age three, is in daycare at Walnut Hill. You will occasionally see them attending our worship service, but they usually attend their Ukrainian church service in Wakarusa.

Generally speaking, they are doing well. However, they struggle financially. In an effort to earn additional income, they have started a cleaning business focusing on upholstery and carpet/rug cleaning. They do this in the evenings and on Saturdays. They have purchased equipment, chemically safe cleaning supplies, and have started an LLC. The name of their business is called Furnisoft Cleaning. Marge and I have had them do cleaning for us and we were very pleased with the results. They were detail oriented and professional. They also include stain and odor removal.

If you are interested in their services I would advise you to contact them by text or email. Since they do not speak English well, they use their smart phones to help translate. Below are their contacts. Thank you for giving this consideration as a way of helping others. If you have any questions, feel free to contact either Marge or me. I do have some "before" and "after" photos of my favorite chair, but I'm not sure Marge will want me to share them!
